

COMPLETES COUNT OF COUNTY

All Precincts Are Now
In--Returns on Way
To Phoenix

Bradbury's Lead Over Wren
Is Reduced To Five Votes

(From Sunday's Daily.)

The war is over. With the receiving of the returns from four of the small outlying precincts yesterday the results so far as can be determined until the official count is made by the board at Phoenix, have been ascertained, and the candidates who are victorious will await the action of President Taft in proclaiming Arizona a state. Some of the candidates do not think they will begin to draw pay from the county until some time in February and possibly March, and it looks as if the newly elected officials were going to have a short term to start off with.

By the final returns the standing of Bradbury, republican, for state representatives is reduced from thirteen votes to five votes ahead of Wren, the democratic candidate, and unless the official count changes the result, Bradbury will represent Yavapai county in the legislature, the only republican from this county.

The four precincts received yesterday were all democratic and served to fatten the majority of some of the democratic candidates.

Complete figures of the standing of the men who ran for the various offices on the republican and democratic ticket, follow:

BLASTING RECORD ESTABLISHED ON NEW ROAD

(From Saturday's Daily)

On the grade of the new railroad out of Cedar Glade yesterday morning one of the most spectacular demonstrations of the power of explosives was given, when 400 kegs of black powder, weighing 12,000 pounds, went off in a single shot, producing an upheaval of the earth that has never before been witnessed in this section. This large amount of powder was used at the approach to the long tunnel to be run through the mountain at mile post 23. The supervising of the explosion was conducted by John Berggren, who has the contract at that point. Mr. Berggren touched the button of the electric battery and in an instant the earth trembled and the gigantic upheaval occurred, producing a scene that was vivid and which was witnessed by many spectators who were invited.

The detonation was felt for a radius of ten miles, and fortunately not a single person was in any way injured, so careful were the men in charge to avoid any accident. For hours before the shot every one within the danger line was warned.

The mass of earth dislodged was 80 feet long, 55 feet deep and 16 feet wide, all of rock formation.

In speaking of the work performed by the heavy blast, Mr. Berggren stated that it was a most successful piece of work, and had the excavation been made by hand, it could not have been better performed. He now starts in actual tunnel construction, and has a force of skilled rockmen from Denver to do this particular job.

PLEASED WITH PROPERTY

(From Saturday's Daily.)

G. W. Hull, who returned yesterday from his mining interests at Huron, states that the showing on the new claim near the railroad station was satisfactory. The main shaft was down over forty feet with a carload of ore ready for shipment. The mine is producing copper, gold and silver. The vein is four feet wide. As depth is reached the gold showing is increasing, and it is his belief that in a short time this metal will lead. He will install electricity in a short time, preparing to operate on a large basis thereafter. The pay streak was accidentally discovered a few months ago and runs parallel to the south of the original workings about a quarter of a mile. Since striking good ore work has been temporarily suspended on the old mine.

F.M. MURPHY SMILES IN FACE OF RECENT DEFEAT

"It's easy enough to be pleasant. When life goes along like a song, But the man worth while is the man who can smile When everything goes dead wrong."

F. M. Murphy, of Prescott, was in Phoenix yesterday accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Cruise. The latter will remain in Phoenix for a day or two visiting relatives, but Mr. Murphy left last night for Tucson to attend business meetings to be held there today. He expects to return to Phoenix and then go direct to Castle Hot Springs to spend a day or two, says the Phoenix Republican of yesterday. Continuing with the following:

Mr. Murphy's face was beaming with smiles of optimism as usual, in fact, was about the sunniest feature of the local scene yesterday, unless one might expect the face of Ralph Cameron, who came back on the morning train from the south, where he was caught in a snow storm in "Dear Old Cochise" on the 12th and from which he had just dug his way out.

But getting back to Mr. Murphy and his smiles, the thought came unwittingly, whether he had been informed concerning the details of the disaster that occurred hereabout on the 12th instant. Asked how he felt about the election, he said he would freely admit that he was disappointed, as he believed most people did not realize what a great opportunity had been cast aside. But it is not Mr. Murphy's way to grieve overmuch or unnecessarily long about that which cannot be helped.

Good judgment requires a careful analysis of every situation, an admission of the facts and thereafter a trimming of the sails of one's craft to whatever sort of a simoon may be raging. Analyzing the situation he said the democrats being now in absolute control of the new state it will be up to them to see that the rights of citizens, taxpayers and all are not abused. Mr. Murphy confidently believes that Arizona is going to suffer a good deal as a result of the defeat of the principal republican candidates, for with republican senators, a republican representative and a judiciary and a republican governor the new state would have started under more favorable auspices.

OBITUARY

(From Saturday's Daily)

MRS. BASHFORD

Residents of Arizona, and especially those of the pioneer era, will be interested in reading the following obituary of a former well known and esteemed resident of this city, and which is reproduced from the Oakland, Cal., Tribune of recent date:

Mrs. Frances A. Bashford, widow of Coles Bashford, a former governor of Wisconsin, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Kirkland, 67 Santa Clara avenue, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Bashford was born in New York State in 1827. The first half of her life was spent in Wisconsin, where her husband was a prominent figure in the political life of the state. He was actively interested in the early organization of the republican party and was the first republican governor of Wisconsin, being elected in 1850.

In 1864 he removed to Prescott, Arizona, as one of the territorial officers, serving first as judge advocate general, then as secretary and for a time was the acting governor of the territory. Later he was sent to congress as member from Arizona. He took a prominent part in the organization and early development of the territory and was a leader in the trying times of the Indian uprising.

After the death of her husband in 1878 Mrs. Bashford removed to Oakland, where for over thirty years she has been known and esteemed by a large circle of friends. She was a woman of unusual force of character, of strong convictions and of unswerving adherence to duty. At the same time she won the hearts of all who knew her by the quiet sweetness and steady poise of her life. For many years she was an active and devoted member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Some five years ago, when on a visit to the southern part of the state she fell and sustained painful injuries that permanently crippled her. Nevertheless in her general appearance and in the quickness and sympathy of her mind, she gave little evidence of her more than four score years. She retained unusual vigor of mind and body until within a few days of her death. The first unusual symptoms were observed Saturday the 20th, when she complained of drowsiness. Tuesday she passed into a coma which lasted until her death on Friday.

For a few years prior to her death she had attended the Plymouth Congregational Church because it was accessible to her in her wheel chair. She took an interest in its welfare and was a close friend of the pastor, Rev. A. W. Palmer. Her five surviving children were at her bedside in her last hours. These are Mrs. L. B. Sprecher, Mrs. R. H. Burmister, W. C. Bashford, Edward L. Bashford and Mrs. A. W. Kirkland. She was also the mother of the late Mrs. Helen Bashford Smith.

A critical inspection of the gentleman being interviewed, left the impression that his health was all that has been claimed for it and all that it could have been even if the whole republican ticket had been elected. While he did not say it in as many words the impression was left that it was not his purpose to leave Arizona--not at least on the Gazette's first invitation, and his urgent engagements indicated that insofar as it could be done under new conditions, it was his purpose to keep right on building railroads and opening up mines. He believes sincerely that if the people had voted differently the effect on Arizona would have been decidedly to its business as well as its political advantage, but he has no notion of giving away his railroads or filling up his mines just to spite a few political enemies.

It may be stated as a fact, also, that Mr. Murphy is not considering the Gazette's gratuitous advice to "attend to his own business and keep out of politics." Somehow he shares with his fellow citizens the belief that it is his perfect right, as well as his duty, to exercise the right of suffrage and "mix in" the political game at any and all times he may so desire.

MRS. GREGORY

The many friends of Mrs. Allen Love will regret to learn that her mother, Mrs. Gregory, passed away last Tuesday morning at her home in Raton, N. M. The sympathy of her friends is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Love and family at this time.

NOTED WRITER

WIRES HIS THANKS

(From Saturday's Daily)
Sir Gilbert Parker, M. P., of London, who is in New Jersey, recuperating from an attack of malaria, has wired Secretary Fraser that he is "grateful for the kind invitation of Prescott and sends warmest thanks." Last Friday, the chamber wired the distinguished writer that Prescott offered him just the climate he was seeking. On receiving his answer, the secretary wrote him and sent all available literature on the subject of Prescott and Yavapai county.

Tuesday, the New York agent of the Santa Fe wired the local office, asking Mr. Hastings what the high and low temperature, day and night during the winter months, in Prescott are. From this, the Chamber of Commerce assumes that Sir Gilbert is looking this way for a haven of rest. President Doyle, of the Yavapai Club, has written the author, adding the invitation of the club to those already sent. The Castle Hot Springs management also joined in the offer of a warm welcome in Yavapai.

SMELTER WILL

START WORK SOON

(From Saturday's Daily)
Deputy Sheriff Fred Campbell arrived from Humboldt yesterday and left during the day for Jerome on official business. He said that forty mechanics are in the employ of the Consolidated, remodeling and repairing the smelter, and the opinion is general that in a short time operations will be resumed. Two large roasters have been received from the old Rigby reduction works at Mayer, with other equipment of that plant to be installed in the Humboldt works.

OFFICIAL COUNT TO BEGIN FIRST OF YEAR

PHOENIX, ARIZ., Dec. 15.--Already the Phoenix postoffice is beginning to receive numbers of great big envelopes addressed to Hon. George U. Young, secretary of Arizona. They contain election returns from various precincts and before the procession ends one must be received from every precinct in Arizona where an election was held.

Under the special law providing for the election of Tuesday, the canvass of the returns is made by a board composed of the governor, the territorial secretary and the chief justice of the territory, instead of the boards of supervisors of the respective counties, as in the case of all previous elections. This special board will meet January 1st and has something of a task before it as it will have to do as much work as the aggregate of all the county boards in the event of an ordinary election.

Territorial Secretary Young said yesterday that he would not be surprised if the canvass occupied two or three weeks, or the greater part of January. Anyhow, he said it would be a task that few people have an adequate conception of. After the count the returns must be certified to by President Taft, who will then issue his proclamation making Arizona a state. When that will be no one can predict at this time.--Phoenix Republican.

READY TO DRILL

(From Saturday's Daily)

The rig of the Jerome Oil company has arrived at Jerome Junction and will be taken immediately to the site selected for drilling near Cottonwood, in the Verde valley. It was purchased from the Yavapai Oil company, which was exploring near Valley, on the S. F. & P. railroad, and the dismantling was done by D. V. Snowgoss, the consulting engineer of the newly incorporated company. The intention is to begin drilling within the next two weeks. The rig of the P. L. Griffin syndicate is said to be en route from San Francisco and will arrive in the Verde valley during the coming week. It is also stated that the Yuma syndicate has perfected arrangements to begin drilling their large area in the same country, and inside of the next sixty days will also have a rig boring. Determinations are to be made on patented and located lands.

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.--In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die. At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well. I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic--a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years.

Your druggist sells it. Please try it. N. B.--Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.
